

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

Moving to Monongalia Co.
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lawler will move next week from this city to Elmira, near Morgantown where they will take up their residence. Mr. Lawler owns a coal mine there and for several weeks has been located at the mine.

For Mrs. Brown.
Mrs. Wm. G. Brown, of Kingwood, is the guest of Mrs. John Lee Coulter for a few days. Mrs. Brown is regent of the Kingwood chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution and came at this particular time in order to attend the meeting of the Colonel John Evans chapter held this evening at the home of Mrs. McDermott. Mrs. Park Fisher entertained members of the chapter this afternoon with tea honoring Mrs. Brown. —Morgantown Post.

Fauley-Cox.
A pretty home wedding was solemnized last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Cox on the East side when their niece, Miss Katharine Cox, and Arthur C. Fauley, were united in marriage. The Rev. J. E. Wells, of the Diamond street M. E. church, officiated at the marriage which was witnessed by relatives and intimate friends.

At the hour set for the ceremony Miss Pauline Cox, of Shinnston, a cousin of the bride, sounded the opening notes of the wedding march to which the wedding party entered. The bride was attended by Miss Olive Hood of Shinnston, as maid of honor and her little cousin, Miss Evelyn Johnson, was flower girl. Master Robert Johnson was ring bearer and Wilbur Fauley, of Grafton, a brother of the groom, was his best man.

The bride was attired in a wedding gown of white chiffon over white satin. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Hood wore a gown of grey georgette crepe over pink, and carried pink roses. Little Miss Johnson was attired in a pretty frock of white organdy and carried a basket of pink sweet peas.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held when the bride and groom received the best wishes and congratulations of the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Fauley went to Grafton today to visit the former's parents and on their return will reside temporarily at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cox. The bride's traveling costume was a navy blue coat suit with accessories in a harmonizing shade.

Mrs. Fauley is a daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. Grant Cox and for several years has resided with her uncle. She is a young woman of much personal charm and is popular among a wide circle of friends. Mr. Fauley is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Fauley, of Grafton, and is located here where he is employed with the Fairmont Mining Machinery company as electrician.

Among the out of town guests here for the marriage were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Fauley and sons, Wilbur and Jacob, of Grafton, parents and brothers of the groom; Mrs. Brock Cox and daughter, Miss Pauline, of Shinnston; Hugh Thorn, of Arnettville, and Miss Olive Hood, of Shinnston.

To Give Play.
Much interest has been manifested in the Junior Class play "The Time of His Life" which will be presented at the High school on March 21. Rehearsals for which have been under way for some time. James Carpenter takes the leading part in the play.

With Miss Fleming.
The Mission Band of the M. P. Temple meets tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Jeanie M. Fleming at 221 Fairmont avenue. Members are asked to bring their knitting.

Dollar Social.
The Ladies Aid society of the First M. E. church held their annual dollar social last evening at the church social rooms which was largely attended by members and their friends. Ex-

Stars and Stripes THE Red, White and Blue Colors That "Never Run"

The United States has become the centre of the world's affairs, and to the Land of Liberty the world turns hopeful eyes.

The safety of a nation depends on not only upon its laws as laid down in its statute books, but absolutely upon the home life of its people, their ideals and spiritual development.

What is more refining and ennobling than music in a home—not music of the street, but sweet, tender, soulful harmonies that thrill and soothe the tired spirit.

THE Autopiano AFLOAT and ASHORE

Has won a nation's affections. More than one hundred United States Battleships and Cruisers have an autopiano aboard.
